RE: Election Judge Position

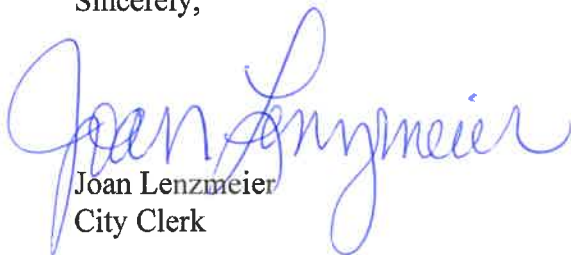

Dear Mr. Kemmetmueller:

In follow up to our meeting on October 21, 2022, you stated you would not abide by the City of Coon Rapids election procedures and protocols which are consistent with law, and required by the State of Minnesota and the Secretary of State.

Under law, failure to follow State mandates for election protocols are not acceptable and would compromise the integrity of the election. Election judges must swear a legally binding oath to uphold the election laws and, by your own admission, you do not intend to do so.

As a result you are relieved of duty as an Election Judge, effective immediately, and should not report to any polling locations in the City of Coon Rapids on election day, other than to cast your own ballot.

Sincerely,

Joan Lenzmeier
City Clerk
